Single Tickets Now Available for Sarasota Concert Association's Extraordinary 2026–27 Season

(September 8, 2026) — Single tickets for the Sarasota Concert Association's 2026–27 season are now available, opening the door to a resonant celebration of world-renowned orchestras and chamber musicians. This season features five Great Performers Series concerts and two distinguished Special Events, bringing some of the world's most celebrated artists to Sarasota.

The 2027 Great Performers Series launches in January with a lineup of artistic brilliance: the Takács Quartet with pianist Jeremy Denk; Van Cliburn Competition-winning pianist Aristo Sham; Orpheus Chamber Orchestra with pianist Isata Kanneh-Mason; Midori with The Festival Strings Lucerne; and the return of The Cleveland Orchestra, led by conductor Semyon Bychkov with pianist Alexandre Kantorow.

Enhancing the season's musical tapestry, the Sarasota Concert Association presents two distinguished Special Events: the Sarasota debut of internationally acclaimed pianist Daniil Trifonov and the much-anticipated return of the Grammy Award-winning vocal ensemble Chanticleer.

Single tickets and Great Performers Series subscriptions are available at www.SCAsarasota.org. Choose Three subscriptions may be purchased by calling the Box Office at (941) 966-6161.
